I'm a junkie, baby
You really shouldn't love me, no way
You really shouldn't trust me
I can't trust myself
I wish that I was someone else

I'm a junkie, baby
You really shouldn't love me, no way
You really shouldn't trust me
I can't trust myself
I wish that I was someone else

Everyday I'm so faded
I- I jus look up to the sky
I wonder why I'm still wasting my whole life on pills
Ain't none of this shit feel real
Jus wish the pain would fade away
But I can feel it growing stronger almost every day
I'm on pills to feel alive
I'm taking substances to feel alright
I keep taking more
I don't wanna stop till I'm on the floor
I won't stop till I drop, so I'm just a

Junkie, baby
You really shouldn't love me, no way
You really shouldn't trust me
I can't trust myself
I wish that I was someone else
I'm a junkie, baby
You really shouldn't love me, no way
You really shouldn't trust me
I can't trust myself
I wish that I was someone else
