

Cinnamon

BENEE

Where about's did you go?
Not what I had imagined
I wouldn't stoop so low
But you went out and screwed all of LA
I think I'll call it a day
I think I might get lost
You're like a leech on my brain
You're like a Band-Aid ripped off

Don't even know where to go
Next thing you know, I'm a jealous girl
Keep talking like, let's postpone
I fall into a danger zone

I might not laugh again
I'll cross my fingers till the end
And I'll stay sweet like cinnamon
I'll stay asleep till 3pm
I might not laugh again
I'll cross my fingers till the end
And I'll stay sweet like cinnamon
I'll stay asleep till 3pm
I'll wake up on the floor
Not asking much, to be adored
They reel me in, then it gets dark
A broken B, I fall apart
I'll wake up on the floor
Not asking much, to be adored
They reel me in, then it gets dark

Message you in the dark
Busy when I tried to call
Try to get my anger out
I'm getting sick of obstacles
Who hurt you, was it me?
Better the less I know
I wake up on the floor
Not asking much, you know
I only wanna be adored
Fall into a jealous ball
Might just let go
I was drinking
Surfing and sinking

I might not laugh again
I'll cross my fingers till the end
And I'll stay sweet like cinnamon
I'll stay asleep till 3pm
I might not laugh again
I'll cross my fingers till the end
And I'll stay sweet like cinnamon

I'll wake up on the floor

I'll wake up on the floor

Tastes like cinnamon, cinnamon, cinnamon
I'll cross my fingers till the end
And I'll stay sweet like cinnamon
I'll stay asleep till 3pm
I might not laugh again
I'll cross my fingers till the end
And I'll stay sweet like cinnamon
I-I'll stay sweet like cinnamon
