

Teeth And Hatred

Benighted

Out of breath and empty glance staring
Through past transgressions of the obscene morning

Where the cowards hide
The second skin covering what mind can't face
Ruins fall on the ground
Suffocating in dust and hypocrisy

Teeth and hatred
Chained in relentless decline
Teeth and hatred
Swallowing acid, spitting bile

Wounded by sleeping memories
Catching the throat of the grimacing larvae
Purpose like shadow crawls behind the wall
Teeth and hatred
You can beg as much as you want

Finding it's roots beneath
The bark of your shameful remains
It will vomit what's left from you
On the threshold of your unreliability
Majestic and triumphant
My hatred

Every single stomach burn will bare my name
Teach you the meaning of word victim

Imploring degenerated species
When you digest your teeth
Slowly sliding through your esophagus
Every single stomach burn will bare my name
Teach you the meaning of the word victim

The blood roars in my temples
You think you like excruciated pain?
I will make you deny what you are
Make you deny what you are
