

Heyyy

Benjamin Amaru

Hey
Hey there
Do you know what you do with your eyes?
One look one pull is it tied
And I said hey
Hey you
I don't wanna be rude but your curves drive me mad
And they make me wanna get real close to you

Get you to a place where the walls are thin
You try to make a neighbour mad and scream
Get you to a place and call it my own house
The only dream I dream is the dream of our hearts
And now I know it's true

She said I want you
She said I need you
But how 'bout you and I told her 'bout the truth
I said I want you
I said I need you
Yes I do
That is nothing but the truth
Yeah
Nothing but the truth, truth, truth, yeah

Hey you
Hey there
Do you know what you do with your lips?
Clashing with mine when we kiss
And I said hey
Hey you
I just want you to know how I feel there's no doubt, it's been real and I know you can feel it too

Get you to a place where the walls are thin, ohh
You try to make a neighbour mad and scream
Get you to a place and call it my own house
The only dream I dream is the dream of our hearts
And now I know it's true

She said I want you
She said I need you
But how 'bout you and I told her 'bout the truth
I said I want you
I said I need you
Yes I do
That is nothing but the truth
Yeah
Nothing but the truth, huh, hm

It's nothing but the truth
It's nothing but the truth
The truth
