

home now

Benjamin Amaru

Sound

Do you really feel safe and sound
In a place that you barely know
And everybody's talking

Fun

They seem to be having fun
In the apartment of somebody's mom
And everybody's talking

And you really tried to hear the words they say
But it seems like nothing ever comes your way
You're slowly coming down

And you'd rather be home now
And you'd rather be home now
And you'd rather be home now
And you'd rather be home now

Cold

The first step is always cold
Especially when you live up north
But who really cares about that

Walk

Walking the night alone
Do you really know where you're going
And who really cares about that

And you really tried to hear the words they say
But it seems like nothing ever comes your way
You're slowly coming down

And you'd rather be home now
And you'd rather be home now
And you'd rather be home now
And you'd rather be home now
