Out There

Benjamin Amaru

I never thought that you can be that for me
I never thought there was a lot in-between
I never knew this could be something for me
It never felt like this was something I need

And now that I am watching my phone
I check my feed and see you being alone
I used to be the covering up on your soul

And now I hear your voice: Are you out there?
Be what I need, somewhere in-between yeah whatever it means
Are you out there?
Would you - honey would you come around come around to me
Are you out there?
Be what I need, somewhere in-between yeah whatever it means
Yeah are you out there?
Would you - honey would you come around come around to me
Are you out there?

I picked some flowers on the field just for you
Pretend I'm busy but there's nothing to do
I'd always wanna make you feel really good
And you would tell your friends that I'm cool
And now that I am watching my phone
I check my feed and see you being alone
I used to be the covering up on your soul

And now I hear your voice: Are you out there?
Be what I need, somewhere in-between yeah whatever it means
Are you out there?
Would you - honey would you come around come around to me
Are you out there?
Be what I need, somewhere in-between yeah whatever it means
Yeah are you out there?
Would you - honey would you come around come around to me
Are you out there?

I heard you tried to move on
Are you out there
I heard I ain't the one
Are you out there
I see your face in the sun
Are you out there
I'm beautifully stunned
Are you out there

I heard you tried to move on
Are you out there
I heard I ain't the one
Are you out there
I see your face in the sun
And now I hear your voice: Are you out there?
Be what I need, somewhere in-between yeah whatever it means
Are you out there?
Would you - honey would you come around come around to me
Are you out there?
Be what I need, somewhere in-between yeah whatever it means

Yeah are you out there?
Would you – honey would you come around come around to me
Are you out there?

I heard you tried to move on
Are you out there
I heard I ain't the one
Are you out there
I see your face in the sun
