

Atonement

Benjamin Clementine

So many ways, so many ways to love
So much love for one heart to try, to try
So many stages, so many stages to kill
So much time for one act
To cry, to cry, to cry, to cry

Cause all I truly have
Atonement song
All I truly have
Atonement song

Once a lover, twice a devil
Once was I
Once lost you twice lost I

All we truly have
Is atonement song
We've got to keep on fighting
Cause we all we get

All we truly have
Is atonement song
We've got to keep on fighting
Cause we all we get

All we truly have
Is atonement song
We've got to keep on fighting
Cause we all we get

All we truly have
Is atonement song
We've got to keep on fighting
Cause we all we get
