

Eloise

Benjamin Dakota Rogers

Oh Eloise why are you so mean I thought you loved me true
But you lie, steal, and cheat
And you take from me all the things that I would've given to yo u
The things that I would've given to you

You know I'm much better off when you're gone
Won't be waiting around at the door
I've got that highway fever, it's burning up in me I'll be long long gone by the morning, be long long gone by the morn

Oh Eloise why did you leave Why did you go away when you said I do with your family in the pews
Did you know that you wouldn't stay
Did you know that you wouldn't stay

You know I'm much better off when you're gone
Won't be waiting around at the door
I've got that highway fever, it's burning up in me
I'll be long long gone by the morning, be long long gone by the
morn

Oh Eloise do you think of me
Do I ever cross your mind
Do you think of coming home do you think of me alone
Well you know I'm thinking of you all the time
Yeah you know I'm thinking of you all the time

You know I'm much better off when you're gone
Won't be waiting around at the door
I've got that highway fever, it's burning up in me
I'll be long long gone by the morning, be long long gone by the
morn
