

Wild Wind Can Have Me

Benjamin Dakota Rogers

On that lonesome midnight ride over the prairies
He sings an old Cowboys song
And it sounds so sweet of his home in the valley
That all the winds made moan

Yodel-Lay-Hee Yodel-Lay-Ho
The wild wind can have me
Yodel-Lay-Hee Yodel-Lay-Ho
Just blow me to my baby

And that storm blew up all dust and anguish
And the rain cut his brow
So we made for the shelter of a lone Pine yonder
As the wild wind howls

Yodel-Lay-Hee Yodel-Lay-Ho
The wild wind can have me
Yodel-Lay-Hee Yodel-Lay-Ho
Just blow me to my baby

Her voice called out all soft and sweetly
And it echos around his mind
So he left his pony, walked out to the valley
As the wild wind cried

Yodel-Lay-Hee Yodel-Lay-Ho
The wild wind can have me
Yodel-Lay-Hee Yodel-Lay-Ho
Just blow me to my baby
