Benjamin Francis Leftwich

I can still see the lake, from that old hotel rooftop
I can still hear you say, I just wanna sleep now
So I asked you to leave
How could I have been so so cold?
What was it that you saw, hidden in these eyes of stone?

Hair so short and wild
Audrey Hepburn style
Josephine

I can still see you stand
At the door in December
With a bottle in your hand
Looking like forever
So you came on the road
Quick love in the backstage
Through France in the snow
Now holding onto things I remember

Hair so short and wild
Audrey Hepburn style
Josephine

Now I can see that time does move
With or without me and you
Look at all the wasted nights
We're missing all the red eye flights
Josephine, I want you

The moonlight made me a liar
Then the sunlight made me strong
I packed my bags in the morning
By the evening I was gone

Now I can see that time does move
With or without me and you
Look at all the wasted nights
We're missing all the red eye flights
Josephine, I want you
