

Robbers

Benjamin Francis Leftwich

She had a face out of a magazine
God only knows but you'll never leave her
Her balaclava is starting to chafe
And when she gets his gun he's begging
"Babe, stay, stay"

I'll give you one more time
We'll give you one more fight
I said, one more lie
Will I know you?

Now if you never shoot, you'll never know
And if you never eat, you'll never grow
You got a pretty kinda dirty face
And when she's leaving your home
She's begging you, "Stay, stay"

I'll give you one more time
We'll give you one more fight
I said, one more line
Be a riot, 'cause I know you

Well, now that you've got your gun
It's much harder now the police have come
Now I'll shoot him if it's what you ask
But if you'd just take off your mask
To find out that everything's gone wrong

Now everybody's dead
They're driving past my old school
He's got his gun, and he's got his suit on
She says, "Babe, you look so cool"
You look so cool
