

Angela

Benjamin Ingrosso

Falling isn't falling if it's falling into you
You come in like the sun in May and paint the sky in blue
On a bad day
Yeah, on a bad day
Mama said that all the good things comes and goes away
Then I'll be stuck in limbo till the day I see your face
Can you hear me
Now tell me can you hear me?

We are stuck in
In between
A yes and no
Let's see

Ms Angela darling, I'm calling on you
There's one in a million, it gotta be you
Oh, I can't imagine a life without me and
Angela, Angela, Angela!

One with liquid confidence
And blurring out song in
I know I could risk it all
Just to get a glimpse
Of how you taste
I bet you got that sweet taste

If there's a god, then god I know
He put you first in line
I know it looks ridiculous
To watch me love you blind
Heaven can't wait
Till you're right beside me

We are stuck in
In between
A yes and no
Let's see

Ms Angela darling, I'm calling on you (Calling on you)
There's one in a million, it gotta be you (It gotta be you)
Oh, I can't imagine a life without me and
Angela, Angela, Angela!
Ms Angela darling, tell me what to do (Tell me what to do)
'Cause what if I'm dreaming and there is no you? (There is no you)
Oh, I can't imagine a life without me and

Angela
Angela
Tell me what to do
Angela
Tell me what to do
Angela
I'm calling on you
Angel, angel, angel-, Angela!

Ms Angela darling, I'm calling on you (Calling on you)

There's one in a million, it gotta be you (It gotta be you)
Oh, I can't imagine a life without me and
Angela, Angela, Angela!

Ms Angela darling, tell me what to do (Tell me what to do)
'Cause what if I'm dreaming and there is no you? (There is no you)
Angela, Angela, Angela!
