

Better Days

Benjamin Ingrosso

Call me believer, a dreamer, if you will
I finally can see all the stars shining brighter on us
Though it took a while to be breathing again, my friend
Yeah, it's gonna be a long run, but I'm gonna do my best
Yeah, you can count on me till the end, just rely on my heart
'Cause I feel in my bones that a change gonna come
Gonna come, gonna come

Yeah, I see them better days ahead
We're gonna make it there
Yeah, I swear

Straight outta the darkness and right into your flames
It's hard to be asleep when the night keeps calling your name
And you wanna shout it all over again (Again)
Again (Again), again (Again) and again (And again)
Yeah, I'm about to lose myself
So, mama, can you hear me, oh, tell me it's okay
You taught me everything that I know
But it's hard to be sane in this big world
I need you to believe again 'cause

I see them better days ahead
We're gonna make it there (We're gonna make it there)
We're gonna make it there, say ooh
I feel my better days ahead
We're gonna make it there
Yeah, I swear

In a world of he said, she said, click it like it high technology
Everybody's fighting for it, trying hard, who you wanna be?
Maybe I'm a dreamer, a believer, in the noise inside my head
But something in the air that makes me see them better days ahead
Ahead, ahead, ahead, ahead, ahead, ahead
Hey can we meet there halfway?
I'm gonna take you there
I'm gonna take you there

I see them better days ahead
We're gonna make it there (We're gonna make it there)
We're gonna make it there, say ooh (I'm gonna take you there)
I feel my better days ahead (I feel my better days ahead)
We're gonna make it there (We're gonna make it there)
Yeah, I swear

I feel my better days
I'm gonna take you there
I swear
