

Can Somebody Find Her?

Benjamin Ingrosso

Sunday morning
I've got the paper for myself
Ain't got nobody calling
All day

I got coffee pouring
Could stay in bed till after twelve
It's kinda lonely but I'll be okay

Cause something that I heard before I just can't forget

Somebody said
She's out in the rain
Not just in my head
But she's lost in vain
She's looking for someone
But don't know that someone is me

Cause somebody said
She's out there tonight
But she's not yet in my bed
But damn, that would be nice
Yeah, I wouldn't mind it
If somebody found her for me
If somebody found her for me
Cause that girl she's the one for me

I'd feel sorry for my neighbors
With all the noise that she would make
You know she really ain't quite, when she bakes
She gave me all kinds of flavors
And I just really love the taste
I tried it all in my dream, and I can't wait

Cause something that I heard before I just can't forget
Now she's stuck on my mind and I wish that I could find her I think it's a sign cause

Somebody said
She's out in the rain
Not just in my head
But she's lost in vain
She's looking for someone
But don't know that someone is me

Cause somebody said
She's out there tonight
But she's not yet in my bed
But damn, that would be nice
Yeah, I wouldn't mind it
If somebody found her for me
If somebody found her for me
Cause that girl she's the one for me
