

Crystal Clear

Benjamin Ingrosso

You want to move
Your body can't
Too stuck inside the lines
To leave it all
To feel what's not defined

I want to move your body now
Collide with you tonight
But I keep my love
I keep it locked till you can let go

Of wrong, Of right
Of perfect order
Fate is just a thought inside your mind, mind

When your waiting for the world to change your life
Baby, you can wait for years
Don't be searching for a symbol or a sign
Cause I know life ain't crystal clear

I want to move
My body can't
To be at one tonight
I know that you can live outside those lines

You want to move
For you I'll be a human sacrifice
I'll take the fall, I'll take it all till you can let go

Of wrong, Of right
Of perfect order
Fate is just a thought inside your mind, mind

When your waiting for the world to change your life
Baby, you can wait for years
Don't be searching for a symbol or a sign
Cause I know life ain't crystal clear

Of wrong, Of right
Of perfect order
Fate is just a thought inside your mind, mind

When your waiting for the world to change your life
Baby, you can wait for years
Don't be searching for a symbol or a sign
Cause I know life ain't crystal clear

Clear
Clear
Clear
Clear

Don't be searching for a symbol or a sign
Cause I know life ain't crystal clear
