

PVT?

Benjamin Ingrosso

Will you step into the Pink Velvet Theater?
Don't be startled if you find yourself in his arms
You see, out here in the real world, he is by the piano
Every night, trying to find his way back to you
Because inside the Pink Velvet Theater
Oh, darling, it's a place which travels beyond your wildest imagination (Just look at the stars)
So as you cross over into that shimmering sphere
Leave your worries behind and let him know you're on your way (PVT)
'Cause maybe one lie lets you see the truth
Honey, don't lose faith
It's hard to be sane in this big world
