Rewind It

Benjamin Ingrosso

I said I wanted space
Left you feeling out of place
It hurts us both in different ways
But I guess bad timing had me blinded, babe

You asked me then how I would feel
If we let all this go
And I replied some heartless things
Like I don't really mind it (I don't really mind it)

But then I see you with somebody else
I'm caught off guard and I'm trying hard to fight it
Cause jealousy isn't good for my health
I know I said I don't really mind it
I let you go now I wish I could rewind it

I wish I could rewind it
I wish I could rewind it
I wish I could rewind it
I let you go now I wish I could rewind it

I try to say I'm sorry now
But words already burned us down
Still caught up in all that we could've been Forget bad timing, can we try again

You asked me then how I would feel
If both our hearts were broke
And I replied some stupid thing
Like I don't really mind it (I don't really mind it)

But then I see you with somebody else
I'm caught off guard and I'm trying hard to fight it
Cause jealousy isn't good for my health
I know I said I don't really mind it
I let you go now I wish I could rewind it

I wish I could rewind it
I wish I could rewind it

But then I see you with somebody else
I'm caught off guard and I'm trying hard to fight it
Cause jealousy isn't good for my health
I know I said I don't really mind it
I let you go now I wish I could rewind it
