

Shores

Benjamin Ingrosso

I have always wondered
What's behind your eyes
'Cause even when you try you cannot lie
And lately I've been wondering
Where you hide your smile
I just need to see it one more time

Will you ever tell me what is really on your mind?
'Cause I'm the greatest girl you'll ever find

Cause I'm moving on
To life on better shores you see, shores you see, be sure of me
I'm moving on
To somebody that's sure of me, sure of me, be sure of me
Cause I'm moving on
I'm moving on

I have always wondered
Why you bite your tongue
Like every single word is on the run
I've always been grateful
Of each and every word
But how we reach the part of no return?

Will you ever tell me what is really on your mind?
'Cause I'm the greatest love you'll ever find

I'm moving on
To life on better shores you see, shores you see, be sure of me
I'm moving on
To somebody that's sure of me, sure of me, be sure of me
I'm moving on, 'cause you're not strong enough

And you can't hold my heart, heart
So you can't hold on
You can't, you can't, you can't, you can't, you can't, you can't hold on to my heart
My heart, my heart
You can't, you can't hold on to my heart
No see, I am moving on, oh-oh-oooh, oh-oh-oooh, oh-oh-oooh
