

No One's Gonna Save Me Now

Benjamin Tod

There's a new day dawning on the down and out
I've hit much lower than the dirty South
I can't make rent
Two months past due
My back is bent and I still love you

No ones gonna save me now
No ones gonna save me now

Tomorrow I'll wake up and make you eggs
And while your cussing, on my knees I'll beg
Please believe I'll ever be true
There's no cutting bonds that tie me to you

No ones gonna save me now
No ones gonna save me now

I'll never know why you take me back
Love as deadly as a heart attack
My left arms numb my face is blue
There ain't no saving me from loving you

No ones gonna save me now
No ones gonna save me now
