

KARMA

Benny Mayne

(Yeah you can stay if you wanna
Stay if you wanna play with my heart
I'll take this pain with my karma
Know that you got it down to an art)

Two cups of the red wine, yeah
Hit me on the facetime, yeah
Know this could never be love
But still I always pick up

Play games that I can't win, yeah
High stakes and I'm all in, yeah
Last week you left me on read
Last night you slept in my bed-

I try to quit you every other week, but I fail every time
'Cause I'd rather walk through fire than watch you leave
So don't leave me tonight

Yeah you could stay if you wanna
Stay if you wanna play with my heart
I know how you are
I'll take the pain with my karma
Know that you got it down to an art
It tears me apart

And I know that you'll never be mine
I keep pretending you might

Yeah you could stay if you wanna
Stay if you wanna play with my heart
I know how you are
Yeah I know how you are

That's why they call it "love sick"
Feels like a knife to my ribs
I broke the rules when I fell for you
I'm still trying to make it make sense

This time you walk up my door
I fall a little bit more
So up and down, and so hard enough
That I still don't wanna let go

I try to quit you every other week, but I fail every time
'Cause I'd rather walk through fire than watch you leave
So don't leave me tonight

Yeah you could stay if you wanna
Stay if you wanna play with my heart
I know how you are
I'll take the pain with my karma
Know that you got it down to an art
It tears me apart

Yeah I know that you'll never be mine
I keep pretending you might

So baby stay if you wanna
Stay if you wanna play with my heart
I know how you are
Yeah I know how you are
