Pick a side, pick a side
You know we did this plenty times
Don't gotta lie
You see it in your eyes
Tears never running dry

Fuck it
Next next next next
Next next next next
Next next next next

Why you gotta ask fuck a reach
Why you gotta lie when you preach
Following the lights on the street
Walking through the night losing sleep
Guess you gonna keep on running
Tell me what it takes
High stakes for the numbing
Riding round town doing shit you can stomach, woah, woah

Pick a side, pick a side
You know we did this plenty times
Don't gotta lie
You see it in your eyes
Tears never running dry

Fuck it
Next next next next
Next next next next
Next next next next
Next next next next

I drew a line
Told you pick a side
If you can't decide
Then it ain't mine
Our energy
Serenity
I know some friends
Can't get no peace yea
Fuck my ex
Who got next, yea
Weight of my chest
I'm feeling blessed, yea
You in the past
There's nothing left, yea
Guess ill decide for you
So you don't need to

Pick a side, pick a side
You know we did this plenty times
Don't gotta lie
You see it in your eyes

Fuck it
