

Falling

Benny Sings

Falling, fading
Down, down, down, I go
Falling, once more, oh
Down, down, down, I go
Friendship turns to stone
Falling, once more, oh
Down, down, down, I go
Friendship turns to stone

It's just money right?
We can stay friends right?
It's not the end right?
It's a thing no one else understands right?
I feel sorry, I know I shouldn't
I need it too, you know I wouldn't
Do I owe you?
I hope we laugh it off and it's all good

Falling, once more, oh
Down, down, down, I go
Friendship turns to stone

Kind of like you're falling from the top
Hold on to everything you got
Seems like they eat'm
But they never hit the spot
Never hit the spot
How you're standing up but you had a whole spot
Wanna cash out baby hit the whole lot
Wanna show you gone girl show you whole eye
Go y'all chilling all day at the spa
You can fall high if you shoot for the stars

Falling, fading
Down, down, down, I go
Falling, fading
Down, down, down, down, I go
