

Remember Me

Benny The Butcher

I am the greatest
I said, I am the greatest
I am the greatest
I said, I am the greatest of all time
Let's go

(I am the greatest)
You seen a making of a star
They hear my name and remember me
(I said, I am the greatest)
Just let the record show
That I said I'm coming for everything
(I am the greatest)
You seen a making of a star
They hear my name and remember me
(I said, I am the greatest of all time)
Said I'm coming for everything

You good? Want to be great?
You gotta have confidence
The next level was legend
You gotta have accomplishments
In any league, they considering me dominant
The long-falls, you know the pit of defeat, bottomless
I was hungry way before I got your support
I hopped off the porch and by the time the dawg got awards
Lyrical exercise, this what I call a sport
The fourth bar brother, but I pushed the rock off the course

I got champion genetics (champion genetics)
Ne, next, next level
One of the best
Remember me

(I am the greatest)
You seen a making of a star
They hear my name and remember me
(I said, I am the greatest)
Just let the record show
That I said I'm coming for everything
(I am the greatest)
You seen a making of a star
They hear my name and remember me
(I said, I am the greatest)
Just let the record show
That I said I'm coming for everything

They try to mouth whose talent don't ever count
If your flow ain't nowhere near this caliber that I'm com-
Competition get flattened out
Getting money like I went top three in the first round
My salary that amount
They want my style, but that ain't much to be flat about
I take it as a challenge when rappers calling my status out
One of the best and it ain't my pedigree
You can have the rings, all we did A.I.'s legacy

I got champion genetics (champion genetics)
Ne, next, next level
One of the best
Remember me

(I am the greatest)

I am the greatest
Ne, next, next level
One of the best
Remember me

I am the greatest
I am the greatest
I am the greatest
The greatest
Ne, next, next level

I'm coming for everything
Everything, everything
I am the greatest
