

Bring It On

Beres Hammond

As I stand here today thinking 'bout you
My mind goes reminiscing 'bout good times
Yes, God knows I wanna say sorry
For the sadness on your face that you can't seem to erase
Feel guilty, I wanna apologize
Got to turn my head away, I can't look in your eyes
How do I do this? Oh, everyday I pray
It's gonna take everything in me to say
Bring it on once again
All the love that you've been missing and what I should be give n
Bring it on once again
I swear by everything in me I'll be better
And after tonight if I fail to be the man I'm supposed to be Then I'll pack my bag, get off the door
And in a moment you'll see me no more
Abracadabra and Beres is gone
I won't have a problem, I promise no fight
Whatever you do you'll be perfectly right
But if there exist one little chance under the sun
Bring it on once again
All the love that you've been missing and what I should be give n
Bring it on once again
I swear by everything in me I'll be better
Even what I'm up against is very clear to see
That I have no defense, no
All I'm saying is just in case you might have A change of heart and still need me
Bring it on once again
All the love that you've been missing and what I should be give n
Bring it on once again
I swear by everything in me I'll be better
As I stand here today thinking 'bout you
My mind goes reminiscing 'bout good times
God knows I wanna say sorry
For that sadness on your face that you can't seem to erase
Feel guilty, I wanna apologize
I've got to turn my head away, I can't look in your eyes
How do I do this? Oh, how I pray
It's gonna take everything in me to say
Bring it on once again
All the love that you've been missing and what I should be give n
Bring it on once again
I swear by everything in me I'll be better
