

Only One

Beres Hammond

Hey-hey, only one
Only one
Only one
Only one

You make my day
No, I know nothin' can go wrong
One in a million
Keeps me in line
I write a song
Your inspiration
With carefully chosen words
I know you're mine, yeah

This girl then correct me
When everyone else is afraid to, yeah
And you with your bold self
You say what I should, say what I shouldn't do
Nine out of ten times, bullseye
You hit it right on the spot
My way to recommend you
Stranded you there

They only make one of you, yes
Then they throw away the mold
Only make one of you, yes
Can't be bought or sold
Only one of you
You're a blessin' in disguise
Only one of you
You'll feel nice

Yeah, you know I share with you, yes
But I don't share with another
Won't even try to hide my secrets
'Cause you know it's be the furthest
You took one look at me
And you know right away how and when I'm hurtin'
You adopted my problem as if it was nothin'

Oh, they only make one of you, yes
And they throw away the mold
Only make one of you, yes
Can't be bought or sold
Only one of you
You're that blessin' in disguise
Only one of you
You fill my eyes, yeah

Only one
(Only)
Only one
(Only, only one)
Only one
(Only)
Only one
(Only, only one)

Only one
(Only)
Only one
(Only, only one)
Only one
(Only)
(Only, only one)

Oh, yes, you correct me
When everyone else is afraid to, yes
And you with your bold self
You say what I should, say what I shouldn't do
Nine out of ten times, bullseye
Hit it right on the spot
My way to recommend you
Stranded you there

Yes, they only make one of you, yes
And then they throw away the mold
Only make one of you, yes
Can't be bought or sold
Only one of you, yes
You're that blessing in disguise
Only one of you, yes
You fill my eyes
Only one
Only one
Only one
Only one
Only one
Only one
Only one
Only one
Only one
