

Sweetness

Beres Hammond

Oooooooooowww ohhh (how I wish I had you)
I wonder what the guys have said to you
Hey Honey,
I seriously hope what their saying is something true
Hope they tell you, you've got heaven in your eyes
Saying you're a blessing wouldn't be a lie

And if they didn't call you sweetness
And if they didn't call you niceness
And how about suga dumpling
Then I guess they didn't tell you nothing (NOo!)

And if they didn't call you sweetness
And if they didn't call you niceness
And how about suga dumpling
Then I guess they didn't tell you nothing (NOo!)

Brothers keep forgetting to leave their women at home
With lust in their hearts they keep looking on and on, and on, and on
Guess you got something every womans craving for
I myself wish I had you behind my door

And if they didn't call you sweetness
And if they didn't call you niceness
And how about suga dumpling
Then I guess they didn't tell you nothing (NOo!)

And if they didn't call you sweetness
And if they didn't call you niceness
And how about suga dumpling
Then I guess they didn't tell you nothing (NOo!)
