No More Words

You're talking, it all sounds fair You promise your love, how much you care I'm still listening and still unsure Your actions are lacking, nothing is clear

No more words You're telling me you love me while you're looking away No more words No more words and no more promises of love

Remember when the words were new They carried a meaning, a feeling so true Well, I'm looking for a long romance Not a picture of passion or one time chance

No more words You're telling me you love me while you're looking away No more words No more words and no more promises of love

But don't fool yourself Your empty passion won't satisfy me, I know So don't pretend that you want me You don't want me, no

No more words You're telling me you love me while you're looking away No more words No more words and no more promises of love

We make love, and it's all the same Your eyes show nothing, no lover's flame Well, don't promise we can work it out You can leave right now if you're feeling doubt

No more words You're telling me you love me while you're looking away No more words No more words and no more promises of love

No more words You're telling me you love me and looking away No more words and no more promises No more words and no more promises

No more words and no more promises No more words and no more promises of love No more words and no more promises of love No more words and no more promises of love
