There Won't Be Trumpets

Bernadette Peters

Smug little men with a smug little schemes They forgot one thing The play isn't over by a long shot yet

There are heroes in the world Prince's and heroes in the world And one of them will save us We can see, we can see

There won't be trumpets or bolts of fire To say he's coming No Roman candles, no angels choir No sound of distant drumming

He may not be the Cavalcade Tall and graceful, fair and strong Doesn't matters just as long as He comes on home

But not with trumpets or lightning flashing Or shining armor It maybe daring, he maybe dashing Or maybe he's a farmer

We can wait, watch another day He has lots of hills to climb And the hero doesn't come Till the nick of time

The vote for trumpets or whistles tooting
That guarantee him
There won't be trumpets, but sure as shooting
You'll know him when you see him

Don't know when, don't know where And I can't even say but I care All I know is some Meridian turn Is having some flair

You won't need trumpets
There are no trumpets
Who needs trumpets
