

Born Expecting

Bernard Fanning

Sincerest replica dear middle management mind
Failing upwards every time
You breezed the test, now you've got the best empathy
Other people's money can buy
You don't need to make up sins to be a good sinner
Cause everything you need just trickles down from heaven

He don't need, he don't need
Need no rhyme or reason
He was born expecting
All he's got is grievance
He don't need, he don't need
Need no rhyme or reason

No first hand experience with a consequence
He never met one in his life
No buried treasure, no hidden layers
There's just so much less than meets the eye
Nobody can scare him with a little stormy weather
Cause oxygen masks will just drop down from heaven

He don't need, he don't need
Need no rhyme or reason
He was born expecting
All he's got is grievance
He don't need, he don't need
Need no rhyme or reason

He don't need, he don't need
(Oxygen mask drops down from heaven)
He don't need, he don't need
(Oxygen mask drops down from heaven)
He don't need, he don't need
(Oxygen mask drops down from heaven)
