Man, it's been a wild week
I'm tryna tell her (you one of us now)

Let me put your mind at ease
I could blow through a million with ease
Baby girl, let me roll up my sleeve
And give us everything that we need
I know them texts weren't easy to read
I never thought my baby would leave
She left with everything but her keys
I could blow through a million with ease

Left her keys in the room on the nightstand
Got ghost, like she finally found the right man
Truth is, I was wondering on Thailand
Baby, will you be there waiting when my flight lands?

32 hours, that's a long-ass trip
Texting more than usual, felt good to be missed
Never thought that would be the last time that we kissed
Regret every single time I called you a bitch
Had dinner waiting for you when you pulled me aside
Looked me in my eyes, you better not lie
"Do you have another bitch on the side?"
Let me tell you everything I deny, I'll tell you why (baby girl)

Let me put your mind at ease
I could blow through a million with ease
Baby girl, let me roll up my sleeve
And give us everything that we need
I know them texts weren't easy to read
I never thought my baby would leave
She left with everything but her keys
I could blow through a million with ease

Told her the truth while she rolled out the suitcase
I'm not a liar or a cheat, I'm not two-faced (I'm not two-faced)
She's feeling more like a roommate
I'm anxious, see her waiting in due date

I wanted a child with her, I'm watching her move out
She made up her mind already, there's nothing I can do about it (can't do sh it)
We met up one last time at the Ritz
Best time I ever had with my girl, and that's a trip
She knows I don't drink, but tonight I'll take a sip (turn up)
Put her face in the glass, she talk dirty while I hit (while I hit it)
I told her I don't wanna die alone
Complete silence the whole ride home (baby girl)

Let me put your mind at ease
I could blow through a million with ease
Baby girl, let me roll up my sleeve
And give us everything that we need
I know them texts weren't easy to read
I never thought my baby would leave
She left with everything but her keys

I could blow through a million with ease (with ease)

Every man makes a mistake
If it's just a check, it's a check
