

Dream

Berner

(I got Traxx on this)

When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream

It's hangin' from my fingers but the stem snaps
Fuck a box, I'm back to movin' ten packs
Small batch, you could tell by the way it smoke
My fingers smell like cereal, à la mode
Dirt roads and no bars on my cell
I'm in the Hills shoppin', prayin' that this shit sell
Cold starts, drop some cold water on the nail
I could eyeball a zip, I don't need a scale
Recession-proof, I turned thirty into three hundred
I turned the whole world out, blessings keep coming
The hash look like cream, what a dream
Breakin' down weed, I'm on the cover of the magazine
Is this really life? Shit, it has to be
I been through some shit, just avoidin' casualty
Another check came, fuck a salary
And roll another one, fuck reality

When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream

No ceiling, treat a milli' like loose change
Big glass jars full of new strains
The Chevy look wet with the new paint
They comin' for my spot again, tell 'em that it's too late
Man, I'm lovin' it, my eyes closed
I'm partyin' in Vegas with two bitches at the Rhino, yeah
We set trends, the rollercoaster never ends, I'm higher than I've ever been Yeah, Yahemi and the Cali, [?]
Double R, roof gone, what I'm burnin' too strong
Yeah, fuckin' head changed, I was nervous when the bread came Don't underestimate the endgame, I want the B's, plural
Money overseas and the property commercial
My brand universal, bitch, my price up
And you could do anything if you get the right cut

When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
When you winnin', then everything feelin' like a dream
