

One Shot Kill

Berner

(I got tracks on this bitch, I don't know how it end)
Arrogance (is ignorance)
(Berner)

This room just made the true colors more vibrant
Blue go blurry, lil' mama I'ma giant
Another poor car praying for alignment
And caught a pilot up, it's time to switch up to climbing

When we gotta fly, what is there, when we land?
Feels good to put feet in the sand, I'm in need of a Zen (up above)
Can't believe who I am
And nothing feels better than feeding the fam

When I'm in a ice-cold mission, I'm risking it all
Pick a bad day not to pick up my car
He had a ball and they follow up, I'm still pay (I'm still pay)
I've been getting money since the sixth grade (sixth grade)

Black cars, black cars
Smoking on a dog food but this ain't no black tower (this ain't no, boy)
Big roads, some old ass 20s
Nothing like the smell of some old drug money

I'm everything this other guys are trying to be (for real)
They coming from the spot, that's fine with me (I'm fine)
I used to ship cash, now it's flying to me (come on)
I'll rest when I'm gone, ain't no time to sleep (Berner)

Arrogance is ignorance (ignorance)
I hate being militant (I hate it)
They start wars but we finish 'em
Headshots killing 'em (killing 'em)
I'm still innocent, bitch

How the bitch tried serve me, good luck trying to find me
Damn, a piece of mind is pricey
Hit a courtroom all icy, I clean them nicely
I won't take no, trace lightly

I just lost wifey, bring the bitches in a back room (back room)
Fuck around and hit in a bathroom
Drop out particular on a statue
Was made out of 'rounds, all this money I had run through

One shot kill, I'm in Koreas
I can play 32, when they don't give a feat
I thought a fun rap that Berner is here
So I'm better tell him that, I'm winning this year

I threw three more chase in a body bag

Put me in a holla game make me a hologram
Sign another autograph, boy I've been on touch
You better duck when The Underdogs let Off Shots (aah)
