

Sedative

Berner

They can't talk the shit how I talk, dog
Been running circles around cats for years, man, no joke, though
Been sleepin', they too drowsy
Wake the fuck up
I said wake the fuck up
Yeah

The ones that stayed loyal get spoiled with game (Real game)
New spot in Kauai, I'm enjoying the rain (I love it)
Disconnect for a minute, then I'm back in the mix (Back)
Slide an S600, all-black with a kit
Don't try to money swap, I guarantee that won't end well (It won't)
Roll one, taste the cinnamon when you exhale
A twelve-hour flight, twenty bands for these seats
On British Airways smokin' hash and I'm sleep (So British)
In the boardroom with a three-thousand-dollar suit on
NASDAQ shell, coke plug out in Tucson (Tucson)
Eat twenty different ways, what kind of shit you on? (What you on?)
Could've walked away years ago, it been too long
Offshore banks, cash in the hill (In the hill)
Stash in the cuts, bags full of pills (Full of pills)
Gloves for the packs, square bitches catch (What they catch?)
Boxes for me, then they fly the money in the sack

I ain't never quit, respect the etiquette
Bag full of dead presidents, I wanted better split
Top of my game, it ain't easy, never said it is
They all sleepin', here's a sedative

I bet they worried 'bout my second wind, I'm winnin' for sure (I'm winnin')
Money hidden in the floor, three months on tour (Three months)
When I'm back, it's a wrap, new deals closed
When the feds got to trippin', I had a few more foes (Goddamn)
So that's when the cash came in clutch, pulled out of the cut (Cut)
Put it back to work, Lam' pulled out of a truck (Out the truck)
My money manager make sure it's clean (Oh, it's clean)
And I touch everything like a pyramid scheme
I got bankers in Toronto tryna further my dream
Take a distressed asset and turn it to cream (To cream)
I treat stocks like blocks, I'm tradin' again
And I'm blowin' everything when the payment is in (Blowin' everything)
They on sedatives, they layin' in the bed again
When it comes to revenue streams, I'm a veteran (I'm a vet)
No one gave me anything, no, they didn't let us in
I started from the bottom, now they treat us like gentlemen

I ain't never quit, respect the etiquette
