I feel iffy riding without the blicky
If the dogs get beside me then they might just hit me
The snowman got the room all pissy
Bustin' open bags RayBama just shipped me (What up, RayRay?)
Hundred dollar bills, I don't like 'em with the blue strips (That's how they track it)
I'm low-key, nah, we don't do the loose lips
We buy homes and we don't need the loans
Everything I got, I own, yeah, I did it on my own (Selfmade)
I'm from the city where the legends get shitted on
They try to count us out, I bought a crib out in Tiburon
Thirty-six mil' from a nine, they can feel
One-fifty for the zip, do the math, it's unreal
Big deals, kill the cowards that squeal
Good smoke in my lungs, more gold on my wheels
Me and Spitta on a million dollar mission
Big Bern, dope boy, yeah, I bury competition
On my whale shit

Me without no Chevies wouldn't look right
'59 Impala with the cashed out tail lights
Studio locked in, I ain't comin' home tonight
Another mansion paid for by all the rhymes I write
Grateful player, 'cause I ain't always had this life
Learned the value of the dollar by living without it
I was in a hole, AudioDope pulled me out it
Tossed me down a rope, I did the same for all my partners
Taught them how to line they pockets and fatten they wallets
Made the transition to these legal millions
Business acquisitions
Seen it all from the boss position
Alley-oop off the bounce pass, court vision
I'm really balling, not stalling at all

What I want, I cop, the rest, I already got
I been wearing way more chains these days
Lost track of the time beneath the palm tree shade, yeah
