

Chrome Clouded

Bernice West

Can you hear the sound
The sound of home
The voices breaking through the clouds of chrome
Can you feel the earth
Moving slow
The place I used to call myself unknown

Now you be you
Not gonna let it stop for nothing
Now I'll be me
Just let it flow through love for something

This ain't the way I used to glow
I am called
I am saved
I have been set free
'Cause Your love is more than I could reach
I am filled with Your thrill
'Cause I've been chrome clouded
By Your
By Your love
I'm bounded
I'm bounded

I will take your hand and hold you close
All fear is abandoned
You're crowned in white
May your soul find peace
In me
I will set you free

Now you be you
Not gonna let it stop for nothing
Now I'll be me
Just let it flow through love for something

But take heart in this world you will face some trouble
But rest 'cause I
Have overcome this world
And your soul will have peace in me

I've been chrome clouded
By Your
By Your love
I'm bounded
I'm bounded

Can you hear the sound
The sound of hope
The voices calling you to free this soul
Can you feel His love pulling you close
Leaving me breathless I am enough
