

Engraved Face

Besatt

You can't comprehend my unruly words
You don't want to understand of message
I throw away the paranoia from my mind
Which has to extreme visions

Two faces is too much for me
Pentagram and anticross are engraved in my body

I can't cheat myself
Kneel by the altar of empty God
Jeer from various and wild difference
I stand and scream towards the heaven

It's time for victory
Glory to Satan
