

Don't you feel it's more than this
If you concentrate
Take a look between the truth
And things you can not see
Try to brake that courage chain and leave yourself a while Step inside your deepest fear
and seperate this world

Yes I can feel disturbance in the air
People that I knew are trying to brake through
No I don't mind going for a ride to meet them
In the fiction city
To meet them in the fiction city

Sometimes when I'm feeling down
I know that they are here
Reflections of what they have seen
Ain't easy to ignore With respect of who they were before they touched the sky
Step inside your deepest fear
and seperate this world

Yes I can feel disturbance in the air
People that I knew are trying to brake through
No I don't mind going for a ride to meet them
In the fiction city
To meet them in the fiction city
