

5AM

Betcha

They say I needa get some fresh air, don't care
Not gonna breathe it in
New car, still far, I guess I'm sleeping in
To get high so I could spend time alone

My momma said I need some new friends, new spin
Don't wanna shake it up
Bad mood, tattooed, not gonna coverup
I got lost so I could just be alone
Nobody call me on the telephone

Waking up 5 in the morning
Took a deep breath but I still can't breathe
Read a stop sign as a warning
Need a reset or I'm gonna go crazy

I'm waking up 5 in the morning
Took a few hits but I still can't sleep
Read a stop sign as a warning
Need a reset or I'm gonna go crazy

I hear them callin' me a lost cause, just 'cause
I need a moment like a hard pause, got caught
I think I'm broken but in due time I know
I'll be fine again
Oh, but

There's no tricks for now
It's not Halloween
I'm all hallowed out
I need batteries
I won't cry to you
I'm too scared to show
Nobody call me on the telephone

Waking up 5 in the morning
Took a deep breath but I still can't breathe
Read a stop sign as a warning
Need a reset or I'm gonna go crazy

I'm waking up 5 in the morning
Took a few hits but I still can't sleep
Read a stop sign as a warning
Need a reset or I'm gonna go crazy

So maybe I'll write a song for you
And maybe I'll die before you do
Maybe I'll drive along your route
And maybe I'll smile once it's through

So maybe I'll write a song for you
And maybe I'll die before you do

Waking up 5 in the morning
(Maybe I'll drive along your route)
Took a deep breath but I still can't breathe
Read a stop sign as a warning

Need a reset or I'm gonna go crazy
