

Call Me Back

Betcha

Seeing doubles, I don't wanna talk about it
Don't know how the fuck I'm 'sposed to go without ya
Hiding all the trouble, you were photographic
Left me in the rubble just to sit in traffic
Hurts me that I didn't even know about it
Why'd you have to go and make it so dramatic Guess there's not a perfect way to go to static
Guess there's not a perfect way to say that

I'm through
Been a long time since I've been without you
Bought a lotta lies and they never came true
Got a soft side, what'd you think that I'd do
Think that I'd do different for you
In a new light since you've broken my trust
Nothing's going back to the way that it was
Maybe that's life but it's never been us
Never been us

Are your feelings feeling final
Are you living in denial
Don't know how to break the cycle
So you're letting all your life go
Watch my back it's getting primal
I used to see you as an idol
Now I gotta be on my own, my own

It's through
Been a long time since I've been without you
Bought a lotta lies and they never came true
Got a soft side, what'd you think that I'd do
Think that I'd do different for you
In a new light since you've broken my trust
Nothing's going back to the way that it was
Maybe that's life but it's never been us
Never been us

It's never been us
It's never been us

But I can't stay mad
Things will be fine
Just give it time
No I can't stay mad
Things will be fine
Just give it time
And I'll get over it

And I'll get over it
