

Lucy Lucy

Betcha

My heart's in my head, I said
And I don't need nobody
Unless I've got me somebody to rest
On my chest through the night
See I've been falling, it's a guarantee
Trying to get a taste of the air I breathe
And feel my lungs so I can have enough for my life

Well, Lucy, Lucy
Oh, well I lost you for the first time, time, time
Lucy, Lucy
Oh, when I saw you for the first time, time, time (yeah)
When I saw you for the first time

My heart's in my head, she said I ain't going to bed
I don't want me nobody unless I've got me somebody
Who'll let me sleep in through the light
I wanna love you even if it's just the end the day
And we got nothing to say, don't gotta speak it
Trickle a little closer and show me all of your secret ways
To my head and to my high life

Lucy, Lucy
Oh, well I lost you for the first time, time, time
Lucy, Lucy
Oh, when I saw you for the first time, time, time
Lucy, Lucy
Oh, when I lost you for the first time, time
Lucy, Lucy
Oh, when I saw you for the first time, time (yeah)
When I saw you for the first time

So are you gonna play mind games
Or are you gonna save my grace
See I was going around
Listening for a sound
And wishing that you were right away
Was always going around
And listening for the sound
The day that you turned your hideaway

Lucy, Lucy
Oh, well I lost you for the first time
Lucy, Lucy
Oh, when I saw you for the first time, time
Lucy, Lucy
Oh, well I lost you for the first time, time
Lucy, Lucy
Oh, when I saw you for the first time, time
