

Moon

Betcha

Got post traumatic
Breaking through that wall
Fell from the attic
But nothing broke my fall
And I haven't stopped
Cascading in all of my fears

A problematic (high)
Got me off my ground
An automatic (why)
Covers every sound
And I can't imagine (life)
Back when it all was clear

(Ohhh)

No I never wanted this shade of black
Pulling me off my track
You gotta help me now
Baby I'm reaching out to you ooh
In the night baby you're the moon
(In the night baby you're the moon)

I'm falling to pieces I need you right here
I'm broken bleeding and thinking unclear
Calling screaming into the night air
Don't ever let me be alone

Won't you stay for me baby
I've been shit out of luck
Never meant to get bothered
I was giving it up
'Til I looked into your eyes
You took me by surprise
Out of the darkness
(Out of the darkness)

No I never wanted this shade of black
Pulling me off my track
You gotta help me now
Baby I'm reaching out to you ooh
In the night baby you're the moon
(In the night baby you're the moon)

I'm falling to pieces I need you right here
I'm broken bleeding and thinking unclear
Calling screaming into the night air
Don't ever let me be alone

I'd be all out of sight
I'd be caught in the tide
Wouldn't have any fight
Without you
I'd be more than alone
Never know where to go
I need you leading me home
You're my moon

I'd be all out of sight
Without you
I need you leading me home

I'm falling to pieces I need you right here
Calling screaming into the night air
