

Same Way

Betcha

Thought of all the things we'd said
You were laying in my bed
Though you've got a few regrets
And honestly I feel the same way

Now my eyes are open
And I can see [?]
We were lying in the moment
Right before the fall
And I could feel emotions
Running through my head
We were living in the moment
Of wishing now instead

Thought of all the things we'd said
You were laying in my bed
Though you've got a few regrets
And honestly I feel the same way
Thought of all the things we'd said
You were laying in my bed
Though you've got a few regrets
And honestly I feel the same way

Now my eyes are open
Thinking to myself
Will I ever feel again
The way we once felt?
Back when we were golden
Shining with the sun
Til diamond [?] everything
It all came undone

Oh
[?] you're my baby
And I [?] without [?]

Coming out of our mouths

Thought of all the things we'd said
You were laying in my bed
Thought of all the things we'd said
You were laying in my bed
Though you've got a few regrets
Well, I do have a few regrets
Thought of all the things we'd said
You were laying in my bed
[?] living in my head
I know that you feel the same way
