

Cold-Blooded

Beth Crowley

I tried my best
At playing nice
But it's a cutthroat world
So I'm guarding mine

Weakness is
As weakness does
To stay alive
Is not good enough

I've seen things
That would break most people
But I'm not most people

On my own
My power uncontrolled
It's intoxicating
And I can't satisfy this craving

I watch as my enemies
Are reduced to nothing
And I love it
'Cause I'm that cold-blooded

I live by
One simple truth
That if you dare cross me
I'm doing worse to you

So if my hands
Are stained with blood
It's worth it to
Be victorious

I've done things
That would haunt most people
But I'm not most people

On my own
My power uncontrolled
It's intoxicating
And I can't satisfy this craving

I watch as my enemies
Are reduced to nothing
And I love it
'Cause I'm that cold-blooded

No remorse
No regrets
And I am only
Getting started

Mark my words
I won't settle
For less than I deserve

On my own
My power uncontrolled
It's intoxicating
And I can't satisfy this craving

I watch as my enemies
Are reduced to nothing
And I love it
'Cause I'm that cold-blooded
