

Cry

Beth Crowley

Another restless night
My thoughts are running wild
I long for something new
When I get overwhelmed
I wanna lose myself
Inside a crowded room
Where I can find some peace
And I'm able to breathe
Just let me breathe

I pretend I'm fine
And I keep on moving
And dancing
'Cause I will never
Let them see me cry
I'll be alright
Just give me some music
To get through this
'Cause I will never
Let them see me cry

The club is shutting down
But I can't go home now
So I wander the streets
And I don't need a song
I'll write one of my own
My secret symphony

Where I can find some peace
And I'm able to breathe
Just let me breathe, oh
I'm brighter than the stars
With my electric heart
Light up dark
And in this moment I am free

Oh I pretend I'm fine
And I keep on moving
And dancing
'Cause I will never
Let them see me cry
I'll be alright
Just give me some music
To get through this
'Cause I will never
Let them see me cry
I'll dry my eyes

Maybe it's foolish
But I'm human
I will never
Let them see me cry

I will never let them see me cry
I will never let them see me cry
