

Empire

Beth Crowley

I can hear the whispers in my sleep
The voices telling me this should be mine
You, you claim you trust me
You think I don't see the doubt behind your eyes

I'm gonna build me an empire
And it's lonely at the top
But madness and greatness
Can both share a face
And nobody will ever convince me to stop

It's my destiny
I was born to play this game
So fear me or love me
It's all the same

Try to find a chain that I won't break
A price I wouldn't pay for what I want
So you can call me calculating
You can say I've lost my mind
You can throw me to the wolves, I'll be alright

I'm gonna build me an empire
And it's lonely at the top
But madness and greatness
Can both share a face
And nobody will ever convince me to stop

It's my destiny
I was born to play this game
So fear me or love me
It's all the same

Just one word I'll let the world burn
Just one word I'll let the world burn

I'm gonna build me an empire
And it's lonely at the top
But madness and greatness
Can both share a face
And nobody will ever convince me to stop

It's my destiny
I was born to play this game
So fear me or love me
It's all the same
So fear me or love me
It's all the same
