

Fangirls

Beth Crowley

Some people might be asking
What the hell's a fangirl?
You're a fangirl if you are a gal or guy
Who is so super devoted to a book, band, show, or movie
That it makes you want to just curl up and cry

If you spend hours on the internet
Desperately trying to get
A spoiler that can keep your mind at ease
You tweet the authors every day
Even if it's just to say
Dear god, please do not kill my OTP
And john green you were so wrong when you said it would be okay
Cause fandoms ruin your life but in such a wonderful way

So now you might be thinking
My god i just can't even
I'm not sure if i am ready for this life
But there are tons of others
Who share your enthusiasm
Embrace your feels cause you're in for a bumpy ride
