

Make Me Yours

Beth Crowley

Don't say a word or I am going to lose my nerve
I guess your silence might be
More than I deserve
We've always had excuses
For why we couldn't make it work
But I have to stop pretending
That being without you
Doesn't hurt

This push and pull
Aren't you tired of running
Making me feel like I'm the fool
And this back and forth
Is stopping tonight 'cause I'm standing here telling you
Make me yours

I've said too much but I have got to get this out
Don't blame the timing
'Cause the only time is now
And if we're done we'll go our separate ways
And say goodbye
But I think we'll both have our regrets if we do not give this a try

This push and pull
Aren't you tired of running
Making me feel like I'm the fool
And this back and forth
Is stopping tonight 'cause I'm standing here telling you
Make me yours

Put it all out on the line tonight
'Cause I am going to make you mine tonight
Put it all out on the line tonight
'Cause I am going to make you mine tonight
Put it all out on the line tonight
'Cause I am going to make you mine tonight
Put it all out on the line tonight
'Cause I am going to make you mine
I am going to make you mine
I am going to make you mine

This push and pull
Aren't you tired of running
Making me feel like I'm the fool
And this back and forth
Is stopping tonight 'cause I'm standing here telling you
Make me yours
