

Beyond The Sun

Beth Gibbons

If I had known where I'd begun
Would I still fear where I might end?
If I had known you from the start
Would I still visit the place in the dark?
The place in the dark

If I have spoken of the world I once was
Words that I noticed when we were apart
If I'd remembered a moment before
Would I have risen, not felt so unsure?

The loss of faith
Filled with doubt
No relief
Can be found...
