

Rewind

Beth Gibbons

Now that we have had our fun
Time to recognise the damage done
Feeling the fall of the beautiful
Opened our eyes and it's begun

And the wild has no more to give
Gone too deep
Gone too far to rewind
Too far to rewind

Empty with our possessions
And trouble is we still feel unfed
Hunting her down, sweet Mother Nature
Till nothing is left if this goes on

And the wild has no more to give
Makes no sense
This place is out of control
And we all know what's coming
Gone too far
Too far to rewind
