

You up?

Beth McCarthy

The last 17 days I
Haven't found a way not
To end up at your place I say
The first time was circumstantial
The second accidental
The 15 after that were definitely casual

The last 17 days you've
Made me really uncool
You ruined my hot girl summer
It's casual til it's not
We were doing it for the plot
I'm supposed to be emotionally unavailable oh God

I've gotta call this off
Say that it's what I want
Flirt with a stranger
Drink 'til I'm wasted
Do what you do when you're single and fun
I've gotta make this stop
Say that you're not the one
Flirt with a stranger
Drink 'til I'm wasted enough to be texting you drunk
"You up?"

Maybe I should call a doctor
Think I might have lost the
Part of my brain that contains
Will power and self control
3 weeks ago I told all of my friends that
It's casual but it's not
Wish you weren't so fucking hot
I'm supposed to be emotionally unavailable oh God

I've gotta call this off
Say that it's what I want
Flirt with a stranger
Drink 'til I'm wasted
Do what you do when you're single and fun
I've gotta make this stop
Say that you're not the one
Flirt with a stranger
Drink 'til I'm wasted enough to be texting you drunk
"You up?"

Drink 'til I'm wasted enough to be texting you drunk, "you up?"
Drink 'til I'm wasted enough to be texting you drunk, "you up?"
Drink 'til I'm wasted enough to be texting you drunk, "you up?"
Drink 'til I'm wasted enough to be texting you "hey do you not think we'd have really cute babies"

I've gotta call this off
Say that it's what I want
Flirt with a stranger
Drink 'til I'm wasted
Do what you do when you're single and fun
I've gotta make this stop

Say that you're not the one
Flirt with a stranger
Drink 'til I'm wasted enough to be texting you drunk
"You up?"
